

Materia Label License:

Materia's catalysts are protected by one or more issued or pending U.S. Patents (and foreign equivalents) owned or controlled by Materia, Inc. The purchase of these products from Materia includes a one-time, non-transferable, right under any intellectual property owned or controlled by Materia to use the product ("One Time Right").

There is no implied warranty, implicit or explicit, for future use rights or that such use rights will be available. Neither the acceptance of any order nor the delivery of any product hereunder shall be construed as granting, either expressly or by implication or otherwise, any other license under any invention or patent now or hereafter owned by or controlled by Materia or any third party other than the One Time Right described herein. In the event of a conflict between the terms and conditions contained within any purchase order for product by buyer and the terms herein, the terms herein shall control.

Product may not be resold or redistributed by buyer to any third party. Materials made from this product may not be sold and may be redistributed only for the internal research purposes of buyer. This product and/or materials made therefrom may not be used to provide a service, information, or data to a third party in return for a fee or other consideration. Data or information generated from the use of product and/or materials made therefrom may not be used in any patent application ("Patent Restriction").

Buyer shall have the right to transfer product to a Contract Service Provider provided that any such transfer shall be made pursuant to a material transfer agreement or other agreement containing terms consistent with these One-Time Use Terms & Conditions and that expressly (a) permit the use of such product only in connection with such Contract Service Provider's performance of services for buyer, (b) include the Patent Restriction, (c) prohibit the transfer of such product by such Contract Service Provider to any Third Party, and (d) require such Contract Service Provider to return or destroy any remaining product upon the completion of its services for buyer.

Product is provided on an "as is" basis. Materia makes no warranties, express or implied, regarding the merchantability or fitness of this product for any particular purpose. Buyer recognizes that the product offered hereunder is developmental in nature, and may comprise materials whose chemical, physical, and toxicological properties have not been fully determined. As Materia is unaware of and has no control over the intended use(s) of the product by buyer, Materia offers no warranty that buyer's use of the product will not infringe the rights of others and shall not be liable for any injury, damage, or loss that occurs once the product has been delivered to the buyer.

For more information regarding the patents under Materia's control or on acquiring a license under these patents, please contact Materia.
